No employee of the Recorder of Deeds shall be paid at a rate lower than the minimum or higher than the maximum of the salary range established for the grade to which his class has been allocated. Nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing the Recorder from paying less than the maximum provided in this ordinance.

SECTION FIVE. Starting Salary The minimum rate of pay for a position shall be paid upon original appointment to the class, unless the appointing authority finds that it is impossible to recruit employees with adequate qualifications at the minimum rate.

If an advanced starting salary is necessary, the appointing authority may establish a recruitment rate for a single position or all positions in a class and authorized employment at a figure above the minimum but within the regular range of salary established for the class.

SECTION SIX. Promotion, Demotion, Reallocation and Transfer An employee who is transferred, promoted, demoted, or whose position is reallocated after the effective date of this ordinance, shall have his or her rate of pay for the new position determined as follows:

(a) Promotion: This shall be defined as a change of an employee from a position of one class to a position of another class with a higher pay grade.

(1) When an employee is promoted to a position in the General and Management Schedule which is only one grade higher, the employee's salary shall be set at a rate which is five percent (5%) higher than the rate received immediately prior to promotion. If the position to which the employee promotes is two (2) or more grades higher than the original position, the employee's salary shall be set at a rate which is ten percent (10%) higher than the rate received immediately prior to promotion. An appointing authority may approve up to a 15 percent (15%) salary adjustment for a one-grade promotion, and up to a 20 percent (20%) salary adjustment for a two-grades or more promotion when such action is needed to attract experienced, qualified candidates for a position. Such salary determination shall take into consideration the nature and magnitude of the accretion of duties and responsibilities resulting from the promotion. However, no employee shall be paid less than the minimum rate nor more than the maximum rate for the new class of position, except as otherwise provided in this ordinance.

(b) Demotion: This shall be defined as a change of an employee from a position of one class to a position of another class which has a lower pay grade.

(1) If an employee is demoted for disciplinary reasons his or her rate of pay shall be established at a rate within the range for the new position to be determined by the appointing authority.

(2) If an employee accepts a voluntary demotion, his or her rate of pay shall be reduced to a rate within the range for the new position which is five percent (5%) lower than the rate received immediately prior to demotion. An appointing authority may approve up to a ten percent (10%) salary decrease upon demotion. However, no employee shall be paid less than the minimum nor more than the maximum rate for the new class of position, except as otherwise provided in this ordinance.

(c) Reallocation:

(1) The salary of an employee which is in excess of the maximum of the range prescribed by this ordinance for the class and grade to which his or her position has been allocated or may be reallocated shall not be reduced by reason of the new salary range and grade. The salary of such employee shall not be increased so long as he or she remains in the class of position, except as otherwise provided by this ordinance.

(2) If the employee's position is reallocated to a class in a lower pay grade and the rate of pay for the previous position is within the salary range of the new position, his or her salary shall remain unchanged.

(3) The salary of an employee whose position is allocated to a class in a higher pay grade shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of this Section 6 relating to salary advancement on promotion.

(d) Transfer: The salary rate of an employee who transfers to a different position in the same class, or from a position in one class to a position in another class in the same pay grade, regardless of pay schedule, shall remain unchanged, provided that no employee shall be paid less than the minimum rate nor more than the maximum rate for the new class of position, except as otherwise provided in this ordinance.

SECTION SEVEN. Salary Adjustment

Salary adjustments for all employees shall be based on considerations of merit, equity, or success in fulfilling predetermined goals and objectives as herein provided.

(a) Positions for which salary is established in Section 2(a)-General Schedule, Section 2(b)-Management Schedule:

(1) Eligibility for 3% within-range increases shall be made at intervals of once a fiscal year.

(b) The effective date of any within-range increase granted under provisions of Section 7(a)(1) shall be effective subject to the provisions set by the Appointing Authority.

(c) An appointing authority may evaluate the performance of an employee whose salary is established in Section 3(a) or 3(b) of this ordinance for the purpose of a salary adjustment only at intervals as described above except in the case of:

(1) Exceptional performance of duties:

The appointing authority of an employee who demonstrates exceptional performance of duties or outstanding qualifications may, advance the employee by not more than five percent (5%) after twenty-six (26) weeks of employment at the same rate in the salary range. (2) Substandard performance of duties:

The appointing authority of an employee whose level of performance is significantly diminished and no longer warrants payment at the current rate within the range may be decreased to a lower rate in the salary range. The granting of any such increase or decrease in salary shall be made at the beginning of a payroll period.

(d) The pay of any employee may be decreased as a disciplinary action by an appointing authority to a lower rate or step within a salary range. The decrease shall not be greater than fifteen percent (15%) of the current salary rate. In no case shall the decrease be below the minimum of the pay range for the class. The appointing authority may determine that the pay decrease shall be effective for a specific number of bi-weekly pay periods.

SECTION EIGHT. Income Sources Any salary paid to an employee in the city service shall represent the total remuneration for the employee, excepting reimbursements for official travel and other payments specifically authorized by ordinance. No employee shall receive remuneration from the City in addition to the salary authorized in this ordinance for services rendered by the employee in the discharge of the employee's ordinary duties, of additional duties which may be imposed upon the employee, or of duties which the employee may undertake or volunteer to perform.

Whenever an employee not on an approved, paid leave works for a period less than the regularly established number of hours a day, days a week or days bi weekly, the amount paid shall be proportionate to the hours in the employee's normal work week and the bi weekly rate for the employee's position. The payment of a separate salary for actual hours worked from two or more departments, divisions or other units of the City for duties performed for each of such agencies is permissible if the total salary received from these agencies is not in excess of the maximum rate of pay for the class.

This provision shall not apply to employees whose rate is deemed to be above the new maximum of the range as a result of demotion or reallocation.

(2) The salary of each employee whose pay range is established in Section 3(a)(1) or 3(b)(1) of this ordinance and whose class has been allocated to a higher pay grade in the appropriate pay schedule, as determined by the Appointing Authority, shall have their current salary increased to a rate, rounded to the nearest whole dollar, which provides a 2 percent (2%) increase in addition to an increase which equals the amount of the pay grade reallocation.
